

DEPOSITS

Deposits are required to guarantee a reservation to a Good Earth Village program. The deposit is non-refundable and cannot be applied to another camper's remaining balance.

CANCELLATIONS

All camper-initiated cancellations will follow the Refund Policies listed below.

In the event Good Earth Village needs to cancel a program, including canceling due to inclement weather, all funds paid, including the deposit, will be offered as a refund. A camper may elect to transfer fees paid to another summer program option.

REFUNDS

When date of cancellation is more than two weeks from the session start date: The deposit is not refundable. Any additional funds paid over the deposit can be refunded, used towards rescheduling to another program of equal or greater value, or transferred to GEV's campership fund as a tax-deductible gift.

When date of cancellation is two weeks or less from the session start date: The deposit and any additional funds paid are not refundable and unpaid balances will be due to Good Earth Village. Funds paid above the deposit may be transferred to GEV's campership fund as a tax-deductible gift. Special consideration for cancellations due to a communicable illness or medical emergency will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis and may be subject to a letter of restriction from a qualified medical professional. If a camper leaves early due to disciplinary reasons, parent request, or homesickness, no refund will be given.
